JMS (Jail Management System)

Southern Software JMS-Jail Management System (Previously referred to as Jail-Pak) is an inmate management software package designed to be used in a multi-user or one station environment. It offers user level security and allows additions and changes to be made to practically any drop down list available in the program. Powerful and flexible reporting ease compliance with federal and state regulations.

- Extensive audit trail
- Over 300 canned reports available
- Biometric fingerprint scanning for intake/release (optional)
- Single screen processing
- Victim notification
- Inmate movement
- Visitation scheduling
- Internal incident reporting
- Isolate gang members & co-defendants
- Multiple/single photo lineups
- Inmate/jail issue property management
- Scheduled events
- Mug shot imaging
- Message boards
- Document imaging