

RMS (Records Management System)

Southern Software has successfully installed Southern Software Records Management System (Previously referred to as Police-Pak or Sheriff -Pak) in more than 450 agencies throughout the southeast. This powerful, flexible software is designed for Police Departments and Sheriff Offices both large and small. Designed specifically for law enforcement it includes automated data submission in the following states: North Carolina, Virginia, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Texas and Arkansas.

Features of Southern Software RMS for Law Enforcement:

- Incident and accident reports
- “Sounds Like” searches
- Officer’s activity log
- Ordinance violations
- Mug shot capability
- Print/preview reports
- Master name index
- Uniform citations
- Optimized for field reporting
- NIBRS/UCR reporting (State specific)
- Case management
- Master search
- Criminal & civil papers
- Sex offender & gun registration
- State validation error checking
- Successful state reporting
- Create line-ups
- Processing file
- Arrest reports
- Data sharing
- Bar coding
- Evidence tracking
- Pawn tickets
- Warning tickets
- Evidence tracking

Options

- Document Scanning (Optional-TWAIN Compliant Scanner Required)
- Evidence Barcoding (HW-Optional)
- Inventory of Evidence (HW-Optional)