Weekly Legislative Report

May 12, 2023

Jones and Salisbury streets were quiet this week. The House announced last week that they would take an official break this week, holding no committee meetings and no voting sessions, and they have held good to their word. However, rumor has it that Senators were busy this week tidying up their version of the budget, which is expected to roll out before the end of May.

Now that crossover has passed in this very efficient legislative session, it is almost certain that House and Senate leadership will quickly decide what legislation is important enough to continue moving through the legislative process and send that legislation on its way to becoming law.

The House and Senate adjourned on Thursday and will reconvene on Monday, May 15, 2023.

BILL STATUS

SENATE BILL 157, Limited Provisional License Modification, which is summarized in the February 24, 2023 Weekly Legislative Report, has become law without the Governor's signature.
